Today Danny had a tooth extracted .. ouch! It had it go, it was a rotten tooth. The thing was, the extraction wasn't that easy! They had to crack the tooth and drill it out. When I visited him in the recovery room he was in a lot of pain. I felt so bad. I couldn't help him! I wish I could have taken the pain for him. He doesn't deserve that. He's a great guy. Why should he get that pain? The Dr. said the swelling is going to increase for the next couple of days. On the bright side he gave Danny a prescription for Oxycodone. Soon Danny will feel happy! hehe. Danny gave me on. :-X They're fun, I like'em. I don't want to become addicted to them though.

I went to the dentist today myself. It was just a routine cleaning. So far everything seems to be okay. I need to go back on the 25th though. A cavity I have needs to be adjusted again. It's already been filled but I guess it needs a touch up. It shouldn't take long. The receptionist it should only take about 30 minutes.

I'm already tired of writing, I'll c-ya.

It's coming up May 10th. Do you know what happened 5 years ago on May 10th? I'll tell you. Something awful happened on that day. That day is the day I met Timothy Ryan Richards, the person, the poor excuse for a human being who would ruin my life.

Since then Tim has caused me debt, depression, attempted suicide and many more things a person who should not go through. People say your teen years are the happiest years of your life. Mine weren't. Tim ruined them for me. Since then I've relied in drugs, prescription medications and cigarettes to get through my life. Day by day I thought when I first woke, "What's going to happen to me?" Today I still don't even know. Everyday this date keeps getting closer. I've suffered and Tim's always been off scott free. One day, I swear on my life, I will take him down. He won't know when, he won't know how, but I will. HEY TIM! This one is for you. I've changed. I'm much smarter. You might not believe that. The next time you see me, oh the next time you see me, you'll wish you have killed me when you fucked me over.

I want to see you plead and scream and cry to God. Only he can guess what I'm going to do to you. Just remember this: I don't get mad, I get even. Because of you I disconnect, this mess is all that's left for me. I want you to get down on your knees and see you beg. Your tears building up here before me, I'm going to tear you up and break you down. I'm going to show you MY pain and misery. Here I am in this lonely place without you. Now I'm alone and forgotten. Guess what? I have become you!

Have you ever heard the saying, "Keep your friends close but keep your enemies closer" ? Well guess what honey, you're very close. I know where you are, I know what you're doing. You've gotten sloppy. You've been leaving clues baby. I can follow you. Just watch your back because you don't know if I'm there or not. How's the Nissan X-Terra? Drive well? >:-)
